BRAD CHISHOLM TO BE OLYMPIC VALLEY'S NEW FIRE CHIEF

Olympic Valley, CA - Olympic Valley Public Service District is thrilled to announce the selection of Brad Chisholm as our new Fire Chief. A native of our Valley, Chief Chisholm brings a deep connection to the community, a love for the outdoors, and a strong commitment to serving our residents. His appointment marks an exciting milestone in our Fire Department's leadership, as we welcome a dedicated individual who understands our unique challenges and needs.

Growing up in the heart of our valley, Chief Brad Chisholm developed a profound appreciation for our region's natural beauty and the importance of its protection. His personal interests in skiing and biking have not only influenced his life but also shaped his approach to firefighting and emergency response.

With over 26 years of experience in the fire service industry, Chief Brad Chisholm brings a wealth of expertise and a strong firefighting background to his new role. After earning a Bachelor of Science degree at UNR in 1991, he embarked on a remarkable journey in public safety, displaying exceptional leadership skills and an unwavering commitment to public safety. Chief Chisholm's career began as a volunteer firefighter in 1997, and his dedication and exemplary performance propelled him through the ranks. He continually pursued professional growth and development, acquiring certifications and valuable experience in various firefighting disciplines.

President Dale Cox, speaking at last month's Board Meeting, fondly remembered Brad's parents, Doris and John Chisholm, as esteemed members of the Olympic Valley community. President Cox expressed deep faith in Chief Chisholm's ability to lead the Olympic Valley Fire Department to continued success, acknowledging his strong ties to the community and his vision for the future.

Chief Brad Chisholm's appointment underscores our community's unwavering commitment to safety and recognizes the need for a dynamic leader to guide our Fire Department forward. With his expertise, dedication to public service, and passion for community engagement, we have full confidence that Chief Chisholm will maintain the highest standards of fire safety and lead our department with distinction.
